About Our Speaker: Nancy Rohrs

Nancy grew up in Grove City, where she attended First Baptist Church. She was led to the Lord by an Evangelist's wife at the age of 5. She vividly remembers the celebration from her parents and siblings at the announcement of her salvation! Upon graduation from Grove City High School, Nancy attended Cedarville College where she majored in Business Administration.

While at Cedarville, she met her husband Gary, who was from Northwest Ohio. They now reside in Bryan. (best known for dum dum lollipops and the original home of the Etch-a-Sketch). Nancy and Gary have 2 sons, one who is a teacher and the other who is in finance. They are grandparents to 3 grandchildren, 2 girls and one boy. Nancy is currently taking on-line classes through Southwestern Baptist Seminary pursuing a certificate in women's ministry.

OTHER ACTIVITIES: Crafts (see pic for our special craft), Friday night BOOK EXCHANGE—bring books to send home with others and take home a new book (or two), group games competitions, outdoor games, food, sweet fellowship, relaxation, Saturday afternoon trip to Emmett's Orchard!
